

—About 10 o'clock yesterday morning the body of an unknown female, 20 years of age, and respectively clad, was laid on the back landing of the second story of the Brewery, on the Five Points. A contused wound found on the right temple, and her face was coarsely scratched. The Sixth Ward Police were informed of the fact, and removed the body to the Station-house, where Dr. Lidell made an examination of the body, and found that a fatal outrage had been recently committed upon person of the deceased. Rev. Mr. Pease, the clergyman who resides in the Old Brewery, stationer, shortly before 10 o'clock of that night, a series of assistance were heard by one of his wife, but as this is a common affair in that vicinity, while attention was paid to it. The police arrested four individuals, named Mary Cassidy, Helen, James Smith, and John James, who are said to know something of the affair. In consequence of the absence of more proof, the Carver's feet was not held yesterday, but was deferred till this morning at 10 o'clock, in hopes that someone may come to light tending to discover the perpetrators. As no persons have called to see the case, but that the remains unrecognized.

—Rumor has it, with a color of truth, too, that we have in the at present a Pina Donna, in chrysalis, who wishes to throw in the shade any of the voochers who have yet delighted us. There is an anarchy in the matter that forbids us to guess when public may expect the satisfaction of hearing the quailed voice which she is said to possess: in it is not by any means positive that she will be at all beyond the private circles now illuminated by her rare gifts. We have heard that the ren-asta Diva in a truly wonderful manner, although her physical appearance in the white robes of a Priestess might be thought disadvantageous. Further than this we are entirely in the dark, and we fear we shall remain so. But we wish our developments, and trust that, if the quailed voice is not a mere thing like the wail they are represented, she will not be permitted to her light under a bushel or waste her sweetness in the desert air. She is the daughter of a highly estimable colored gentleman, who has been very successful in his day as a restaurateur.

The Fire Annihilator Experiment, being or disproving that this invention can exist in the flames of a large house on fire, will be to-day at 1 o'clock, in Hamilton-square. As a charge is made for a sight, of course an immense crowd will be present.

The Fraser Family, the Scottish artists from Britain, are to give a series of their vocal and Literary Evenings, next week in the new Room of the Society Library, Broadway.

We call attention to a concert to be held at Kalkrebeck Hall, corner of Eighth- and Twenty-third st., to-night, for the benefit of Miss Morey, a blind teacher, and a graduate of the Institution for the blind. Don't fail to buy a ticket, whether you intend to go or not:

Alpha Chapter, No. 1, O. U. A., celebrate, at Hope Chapel, on Monday evening, 1 o'clock, the seventh Anniversary of the Order, in an address, appropriate to the occasion, will be made by Thomas W. Whitney, P. G. S., and a memorial of regard will be presented by the Chaplain Simon Baldwin, P. G. S., in behalf of the Chapter.

The WEDDELL HOUSE,—This magnifi-cent Hotel in Cleveland, Ohio, has just been taken known as the popular landlord of the hotel bears his name in Murray-st., in this City.

MESSRS. BUTTS will, therefore, hereafter be the proprietors of three hotels, viz. The Waddell Hotel, New-England Hotel, in Cleveland, and Butts's Hotel, New-York. Mr. Butts is well and favorably known in this City, and also in Cleveland, where he has conducted the New-England for the last eight years. New-Yorkers, in visiting Cleveland, will reflect that our friend Butts can be found at the houses above named, where they will always be pleased to see their old friends from New-York elsewhere.

LAUNCH OF A STEAMER.—Yesterday was time fixed for the launching of the steamer Independence from the yards of Capes & Ellison, atoken. She is about 1,100 tons register, is intended to run in the Independent Line for Virginia, in connection with the Brother Jonathan and is to be commanded by Capt. Charles Stoddard, formerly of the Crescent City. She is advertised to sail for New-York, on Monday, Dec. 29, under the agency of E. N. Cully, No. 51 Courtland-st.

TRIPLER HALL.—This immense Saloon, called Metropolitan Hall, has been much imaged by the leasee, Walter Harding, and is becoming highly popular as a locale for public meetings, &c.

THE NEW CITY.—The Committee of Trustees of Williamsburgh have recommended firing of a salute of one hundred guns, a procession, composed of the Fire Department, Civilian (and probably the Military) and a festival accommodating one hundred and seventy-five or one hundred persons, on the occasion of organizing a new City Government. The report was adopted by the Board.

WE call attention to the meeting to be held at the Baptist Tabernacle in Second-av., near West-st., this evening, in behalf of the University Theological Institutions at Rochester. The thing is to be addressed by Hon. Ira Harris, of N. Y., Rev. Dr. Hanger of Newark, and ex-Governor Briggs of Massachusetts. The ability and eloquence of the speakers, the great importance of the subject, and the deep interest taken in it, especially members of the Baptist denomination, will, we trust, insure a large attendance.

NEW MUSIC.—William Hall & Son have issued a spirited "Welcome to Kossuth," written by Wm. Rogers Wallace, the music composed by William Kressler. This seasonable production will doubt meet with the general favors to which it is abundantly entitled both by the names of the author and of the authors.

JOHN G. SAXE, Esq., gives his lecture on New-England before the Williamsburgh Museum to-night. We advise those who love shrewd character painting and keen wit to go and hear.

JENNY LIND passed through our City in the early part of the week, and is now in Philadelphia. She will soon return to New-York, to remain at the Union-place Hotel during the remainder of her stay in America. Her farewell concert will commence about the close of the year, and her intention to leave for home about the middle of January. There are thousands who would gladly hear her, but we presume the desire to meet once more her family and early friends, in her childhood's home, will overcome all inducements that could be urged to prolong her stay.

PORTRAIT OF KOSSUTH.—We have received a portrait of Kossuth, lithographed from a drawing from life, by William Hahn, and published by G. Bernhardt. It is an interesting representation of the illustrious Magyar.

GINO'S.—Mazum, the most effective of the Ravels' Harlequinade's Fantomades, is to be shortly drawn in consequence of the forthcoming anniversary. Those who have never witnessed the admirable combination of grandeur and fun as exhibited in this capital production, should not omit visiting the Balcon previous to its withdrawal. The French Vanderville of "Miel et Vinager," precedes Ravels' routine.

ADVERTISEMENT.—It is madness in any man to expect a business situation unless he can write a rapid, legible hand. Goldsmith teaches a hand in ten lessons for $2 50, but only for a series of lessons, for $10. His rooms are at 20 Broadway.
